Dear Miss Dana:

Thank you very much indeed for sending me a copy of DESALACION. I am flying to California tonight and plan to read it on the plane.

I have completed the initial translations of about 70 of Senorita Mistral's poems and expect to finish work on the remainder by the end of the month. All of the translations, including those sent to Miss Davis for possible magazine use, are still in the process of revision.

I hope that I shall have the pleasure of seeing you again when I return.

Sincerely yours,

Langston Hughes
