Dear Doris:

I have tried to reach you over the telephone, unsuccessfully, but I shall try again this afternoon. Maybe you have gone on another cruise....

Mr. Wisdom of the Library of Congress is urgently in need of the text of the copyright and credit lines to be printed on the jacket of the recording and in the booklet to go with. We have to figure out the formulation and we should do it in the next day or so since it is needed in Washington by the end of this week.

It pleases me to end the year by sending you money. Here enclosed are checks for the Mistral recording and the half-yearly Aguilar accounting.

Love, yours,

Tan
