

My dear Miss Dana, November 23, 1966
Thank you so much for your letter and the copy of the letter to Mr. Kelly for Beltrami with the valuable article by Gabriela, and the copies of the two Nobel addresses. I really don't know how to thank you for all you have done!
I received a letter from Jacques Mainville, written before by the Dominicans with whom he is staying. Sister said that he has for you "une affection profonde et une immense gratitude". He said, however, that it was in Lima that Gabriela confided. However, he did give me a few heads, e.g., "l'épisode du bouddhisme était une tentative pour trouver l'union à Dieu."
I have, to date, examined two of the microfilms of the Mistral collection. I was delighted to find in the table of contents of page 75 "Para Doris". But I could not find the book. I put it there, or have it I searched. Hard enough! Thank you for the privilege of using these unpublished works. It is a privilege to read her English version. I don't feel that, through you, I have actually met her.
May you enjoy a happy Thanksgiving and a very profitable day in Berkeley, Cal.

Love being forward to talking with you again about your return. Meanwhile, you'll keep in touch. You'll come if you're in the neighborhood of Madison.
"Buena suerte!" I love the thought of you!
Sister Rose Aquin, O.P.

[Carta] 1966 nov. 23, Blauvelt, New York, Estados Unidos [a] my dear miss [Doris] Dana [manuscrito] sister. Rose Aquin, o.p.

Libros y documentos

AUTORÍA

Rose Aquin, Sister

FORMATO

Manuscrito

DATOS DE PUBLICACIÓN

[Carta] 1966 nov. 23, Blauvelt, New York, Estados Unidos [a] my dear miss [Doris] Dana [manuscrito] sister. Rose Aquin, o.p. 1 h. ; 19 X 31 cm.

FUENTE DE INFORMACIÓN

Biblioteca Nacional Digital

INSTITUCIÓN

Biblioteca Nacional

UBICACIÓN

Avenida Libertador Bernardo O'Higgins 651, Santiago, Región Metropolitana, Chile