Dear Doris I hope that these last weeks have not hurt you beyond the strength you could summon to meet them, and that now you will accept comfort from your inner reserves of spirit and from the presence of your sister and the demands of your work.

I was with Palma Christmas but even so, desire was stronger than reality and I planned to see Gabriela before returning to Mexico in the summer. Yesterday morning in my first class I heard of the news from a student (I heard before the papers arrive). All day I kept telling myself that now Gabriela was with her own, did not suffer the inner solitude so ever present or to be almost palpable - but today
