Dear Sra. Mistral,

I trust you will by now have received the information circular of the UNESCO Conference of Artists which my assistant sent you recently. I should like to say how very delighted I am to hear via M. Cailloux and Sr. Branca that you have agreed to take part in the P.E.N. delegation to this very important Conference. The delegation, which is practically complete, is fully representative of literature in its international aspect and I look forward with lively anticipation to the discussions promised, and to the pleasure of making your acquaintance.

With all good wishes,
Yours sincerely,

David Carver
International Secretary.

Sra. Gabriela Mistral,
