Lisbon, September 10 th, 1936

Hon. M. Paul Valéry, President of the Committee of Arts and Letters, League of Nations,
Geneve, Switzerland.

Dear Sir,

I have the honor of communicating you that I accept my resignation as member of the Committee that you preside.

Excuse, please, the lateness of my answer due to the fact that the communication from Mr. Montemach was addressed to Madrid and not to Lisbon, where I am living now.

I will do my best to comply with the work of the Committee assuring you that it will be a deep joy for me to cooperate with a group of intellectual workers under your leadership.

I feel that my love and humble knowledge of the Latin American peoples is my only title to the honor that you grant me.

My inmost wish is to be able to attend the session of the Permanent Committee that will be held in Paris, next year, on occasion of the "Exposition Internationale des Arts et de la Technique". I will be a great pleasure for me to meet you there together with the other members of the Committee.

Yours most respectfully and gratefully Consul of Chile and Delegate to the Institute of Intellectual Cooperation.
