Dear Miss Dana:

On June 19, 1953, I advised the Dime Savings Bank of Brooklyn, 9 DeKalb Avenue, of the change in ownership of your house. There is a further difficulty in that Mr. Losee and the insurance broker for Mrs. Mohrman have both forwarded insurance policies to the bank covering your house.

The Bank requires a notification in writing from you to the effect that Mr. Losee's policy is your policy and you do not wish the policy submitted by Mrs. Mohrman's former insurance broker. Your letter should be sent off at once to the Dime Savings Bank, attention Miss Burroughs.

Will you please drop me a note with your new phone number since I have misplaced the number when Mr. Losee gave it to me and Information doesn't seem to have you listed.

Very truly yours,

Donald A. Savage
