MARGARET K. McELDERRY BOOKS

August 31, 1973

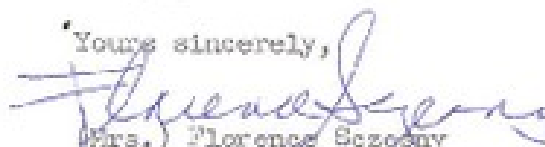

Miss Doris Dana
Box 704
Eldreth Lane
Bridgehampton, N.Y. 11932

Dear Miss Dana,

This is only a note to send along with two sets of galleys for THE ELEPHANT AND HIS SECRET. Would you be good enough to mark any changes or corrections you may have on one set and return it to us. The other set is for you to keep. Miss McElderry transferred all the changes you sent in for the Spanish text to the original manuscript. However, I believe she overlooked the changes in the English text and they were not put on the original manuscript. I have changed them on the master set of galleys which is with our copyeditor. Miss McElderry is on a month's vacation at present, but she asked me to thank you greatly for all the work you did to make the Spanish text read naturally.

I do hope it is much cooler out on Long Island than it is in the hot, humid city right now. It's almost unbearable. With every good wish.

Yours sincerely,

(Mrs.) Florence Szegedy
Secretary to Miss McElderry
