The Honorable Gabriela Mistral
Chilean Consul
Santa Barbara, California

Madame:

From your facile pen has come a most effective and worthwhile piece of literature entitled "¡Harto Util!"

The Voice of Prophecy, Inc. is assisting in the preparation of a series of lessons to be offered free to its radio audience in several of the Republics of Central America. At the close of a lesson entitled "¿Con Quién Casaré Yo?" we should like to use "¡Harto Util!" Would you be so kind as to give us the permission to do so? If you can grant this permission, please tell us in Spanish exactly what credit line you wish for us to use. That is, shall we simply use your name, or shall we say also, "Used by permission"?

I wish that my knowledge of the beautiful language of Cervantes were perfected enough so that I might have written to you in Spanish, but, nevertheless, I should be delighted to have your answer in Spanish, for I understand it readily, even though I hesitate to write it.

Thank you for your kind consideration of our request.

Respectfully yours,

Mildred Grandbois
