

Thursday

Dear Doris:

I have just noticed that this sofa bed I mentioned is on sale only this week at $64.95. This is incidentally the nicest looking one that Foam Rubber Center has. It comes in daniel (you choose between 12 colors) the brightest is red, but the best color in these daniel is charcoal ~~XXXXXX~~ gray--that would be the safest color. I enclose the clipping. $64.95 includes everything. The foam rubber mattress at this price is the softest they sell and the cheapest (the sofa bed is more expensive with a harder foam rubber mattress). Don't pay any attention to the writing in ink on the advertisement. That was written for somebody here.

I left my communist night suit under the pillow. Don't bother sending it to me--I will pick it up some time. Won't need it.

I will also look into the material available for your stairs going down to the cellar. Give me the following information-- number of stairs, 2) width of staircase--how wide should the runner be--since I think some woven hemp of some kind would be the best--that can't be cut like a rug--has to have a finished edge,, 3) what are the other dimensions of each step?

That beer I bought was .15 cents for Poppiner Dark beer and .17 for each Porter (you paid for this, by the way--just mention it since I don't remember if I told you the price of the individual bottles--I wanted to try at least one . . . but there you are! and here I am...

Got the Afternoon Congressional going down at 1:30--all went well.

There were other things I thought of on the train but can't remember now.

NOW.

GOOD LUCK WITH YOUR THEATRICAL BABY

Much love
M.B.
