Chancellor Vernon I. Chasdale
UCSB

Dear Chancellor Chasdale:

I am happy to send you enclosed a summary of the material on Gabriela Mistral, Chilean poet and Nobel Prize Winner in Literature in 1945, which I was fortunate to discover in her former home at 729 E. Anapamu St., in Santa Barbara, only recently.

I trust in your interest and good advice about this valuable material of the great poet of the Hispanic world, so may be the University of California can keep this material in safety for its students and scholars in the field of Arts and Literature.

I do not know anything in regard to the legal procedure to have this material removed from the Anapamu house to the University, but I hope you will be able to find a solution.

Gratefully yours,

W. Arce
