THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO Press is pleased to announce the publication of Enlightenment and the Problem of Monarchy. The volume, edited by Jonathan D. Scott, is a collection of essays by leading scholars in the field of Enlightenment thought. The essays explore the relationship between Enlightenment thought and the concept of monarchy, and how this relationship shaped the development of modern political thought. The volume is available in both print and digital formats, and is priced at $45.00. For more information, please visit www.uchicago.edu/press.
