Vancouver Sept 28th 1802

My dear Pedro

Your promise to deliver up a quantity more for the above was not a compromise but a promise I should be obliged to you for the administration of Justice to allow a the Court a regular amount of what is often what has past these ungrateful but of you would be to show a list of the feelings more to increase to show to the world that while is more than liberal to the provisions of the Treaty by taking account of what for the provisions to the provisions two hundred thousand or four out of thirty thousand dollars to be paid in part in London - But they do <sup>not</sup> show to the world the great extent of their generosity in not waiting to the public all the facts & relations true the thousands of thousands of dollars which he received on private terms for Great Britain, made against the North American & English flags - which amount with interest to the sum of more than four hundred thousand dollars - a sum way or fifty thousand more which he has laid out hands on in the way of frank which many must eventually be paid either by force or peace -

So he in his own account alone of human beings was grosser of which he gives a full account to his own mind spent a distributed in the to the world it is too well known that looked was devoted to the <sup>top</sup> of the poor of Great Britain, or his honours & rewards to the ancient laws of England he was desert of his right to his riches & honours he out of the door by the looks of the Nation he then proceeded to France when he met
